

Chapter 1: The Wooden Boy

An old carpenter named Geppetto made a puppet from wood. He named him Pinocchio. A kind Blue Fairy made Pinocchio come alive. Pinocchio could walk and talk, but he was very naughty and ran away.

Chapter 2:

The Talking Cricket

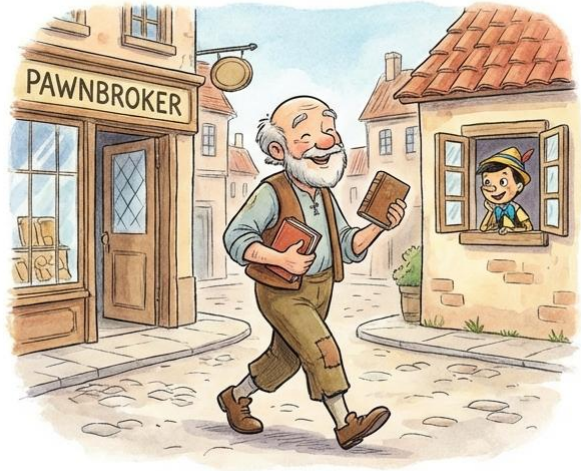

Pinocchio came home hungry. A Talking Cricket told him to be good and go to school. Pinocchio did not listen. He was rude to the cricket.

Chapter 3: A Father's Gift

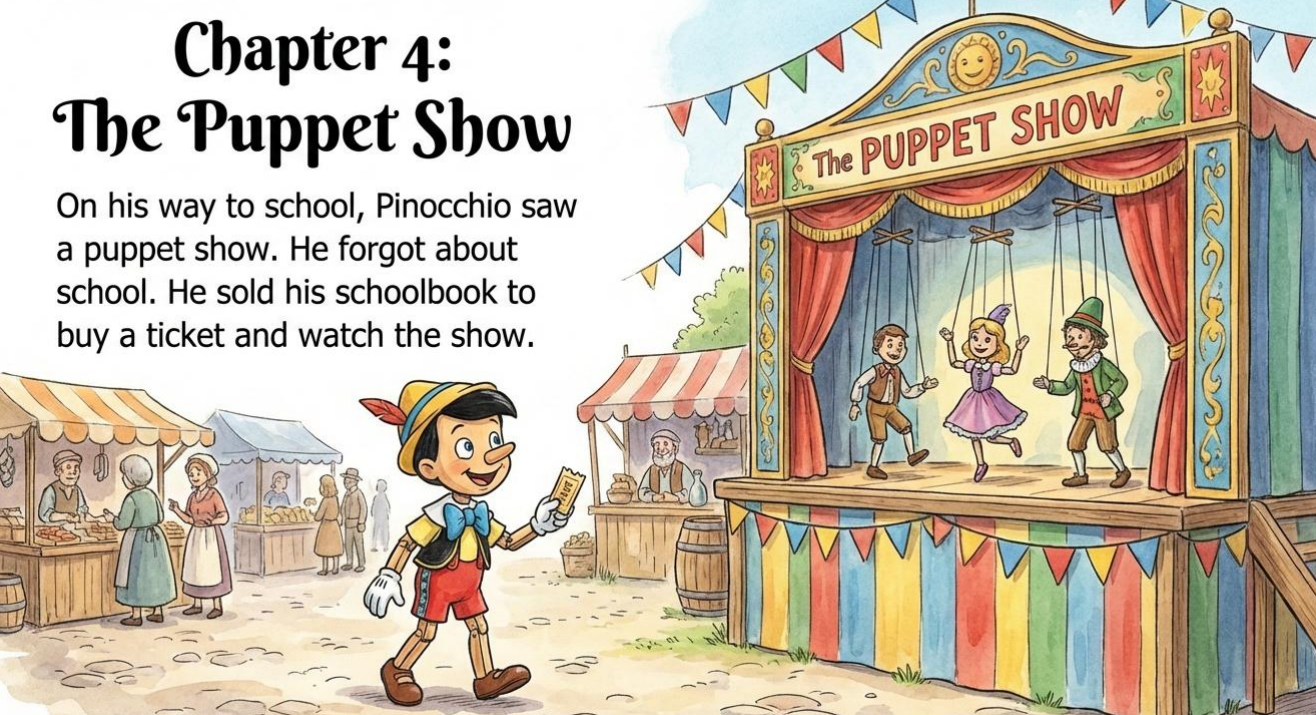

Geppetto came home. He gave Pinocchio food. He was poor, but he sold his own coat to buy Pinocchio a schoolbook.

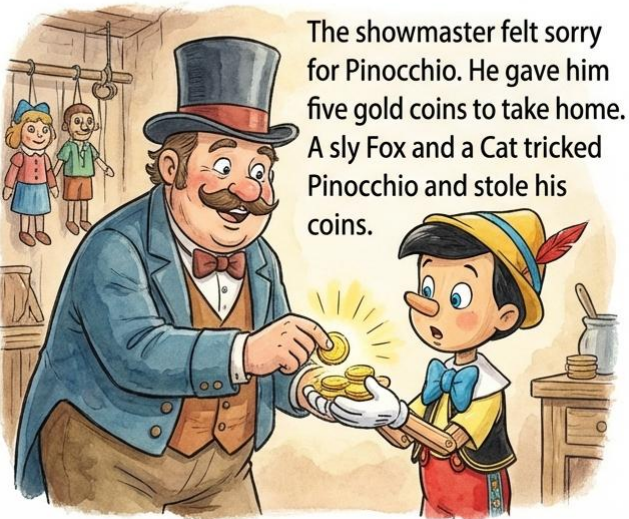

Chapter 4: The Puppet Show

On his way to school, Pinocchio saw a puppet show. He forgot about school. He sold his schoolbook to buy a ticket and watch the show.

Chapter 5: The Gold Coins

The showmaster felt sorry for Pinocchio. He gave him five gold coins to take home. A sly Fox and a Cat tricked Pinocchio and stole his coins.

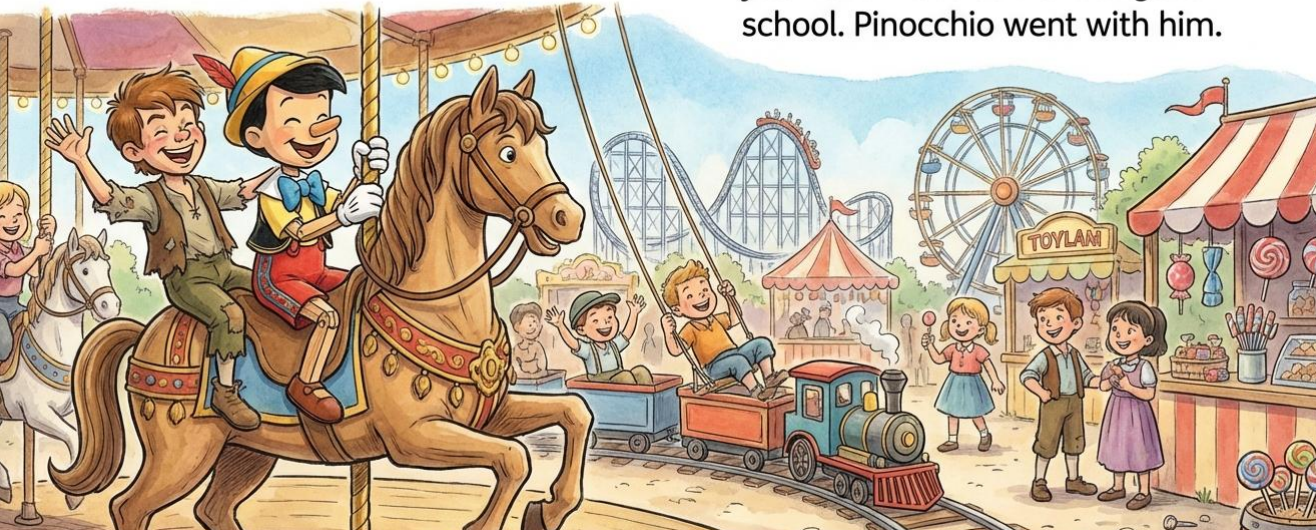

Chapter 6: The Lie

The Fox and Cat chased Pinocchio. They hung him on a tree. The Blue Fairy saved him. She asked what happened. When Pinocchio told a lie, his nose grew long.

Chapter 7: Playland

Pinocchio promised to be good. But a bad boy named Lampwick told him about Playland. In Playland, you never have to work or go to school. Pinocchio went with him.

Chapter 8: The Donkeys

After months of play, Pinocchio and Lampwick grew donkey ears and tails. They turned into real donkeys!

A man bought Pinocchio for his circus.

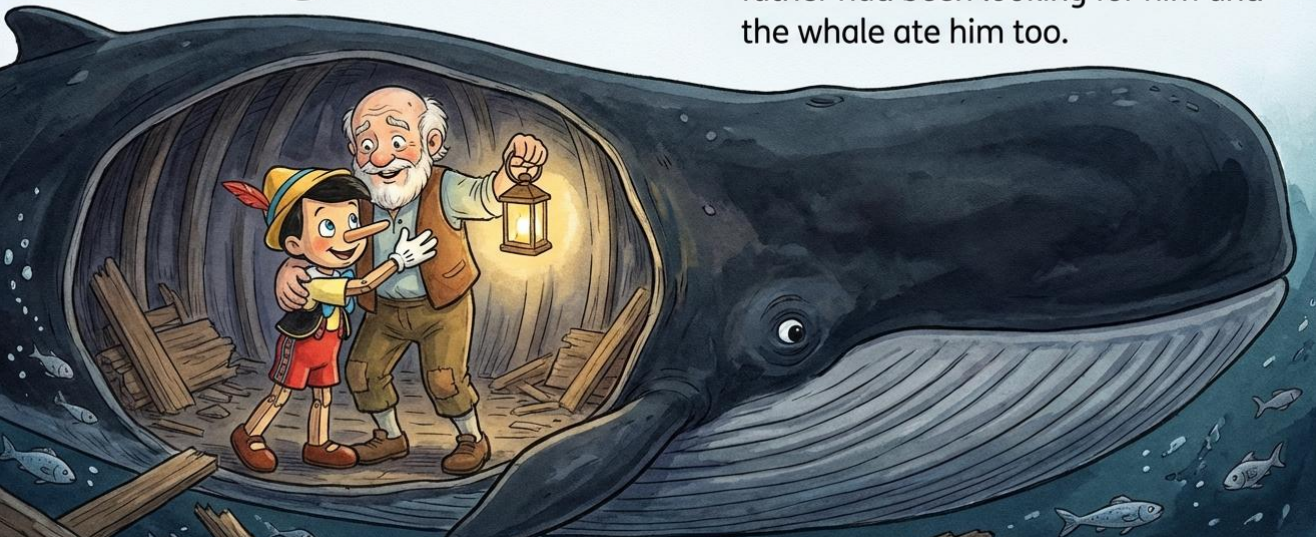

Chapter 9: Inside the Whale

Pinocchio worked hard in the circus.
He got hurt and was thrown into the sea.
In the water, fish ate the donkey skin.
Pinocchio was a puppet again.
Then a big whale swallowed him!

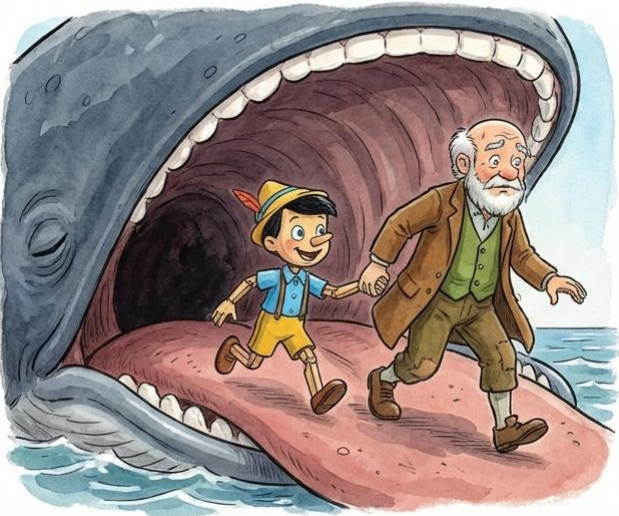

Chapter 10: Finding Father

It was dark inside the whale.
Pinocchio was scared. Then he saw a small light. It was Geppetto! His father had been looking for him and the whale ate him too.

Chapter 11: Escape

Pinocchio was brave. He took his father's hand. When the whale slept with its mouth open, they ran out and jumped into the sea. Pinocchio swam hard to the shore.

Chapter 12: A Real Boy

Pinocchio changed. He worked to get food and a home for his father. He took care of Geppetto and was always honest. The Blue Fairy saw he was now good, brave, and kind. She turned him into a real boy.

