

Chapter 1

I am a pilot. My plane breaks.
I land in a desert. I am alone.
I need to fix my plane.
A little boy appears.
He says, "Draw me a sheep."

I try to draw a sheep.
He does not like my drawings.
Finally, I draw a box.
I say, "The sheep is inside."
He likes that. He is happy.

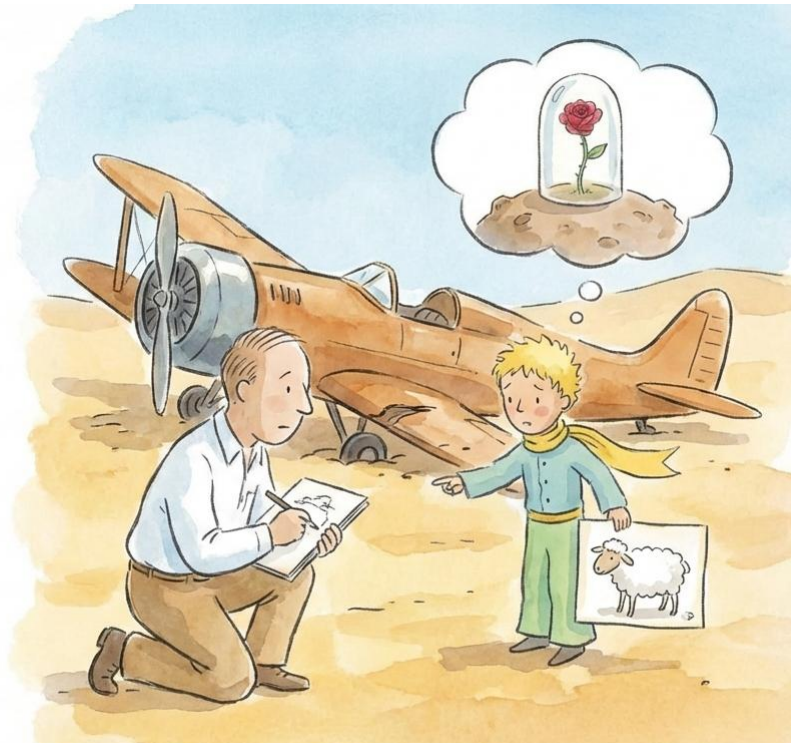

Chapter 2

The boy is the Little Prince.
He comes from a tiny planet.
His planet is very small.
He asks many questions.
He does not answer
my questions.

Chapter 3

The Little Prince wants to know about my plane.
He asks about the sheep.
Will the sheep eat flowers?
flowers?
He worries about a special flower on his planet.

Chapter 4

The Little Prince's planet is called Asteroid B-612.

It is very small.

Grown-ups like numbers.

They ask, "How old is he?

How big is his planet?"

They do not ask,

"What is his friend's name?

What games does he like?"

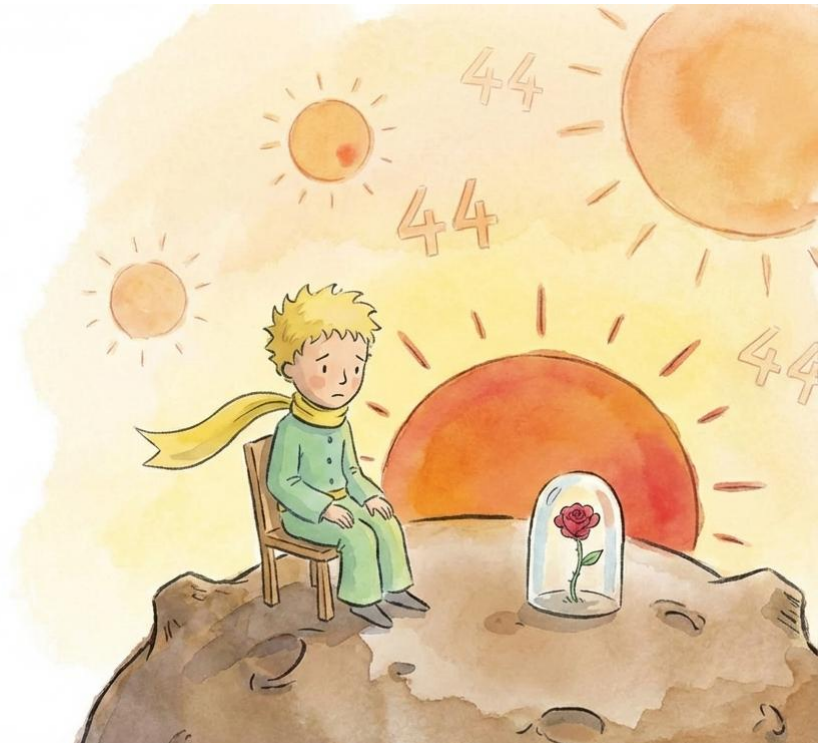

Chapter 5

The Little Prince talks about his planet. Bad plants grow there. They are big trees called baobabs. If they grow big, they break the planet planet. You must pull out the small ones fast. Sheep help eat the small baobabs. But sheep might also eat good flowers.

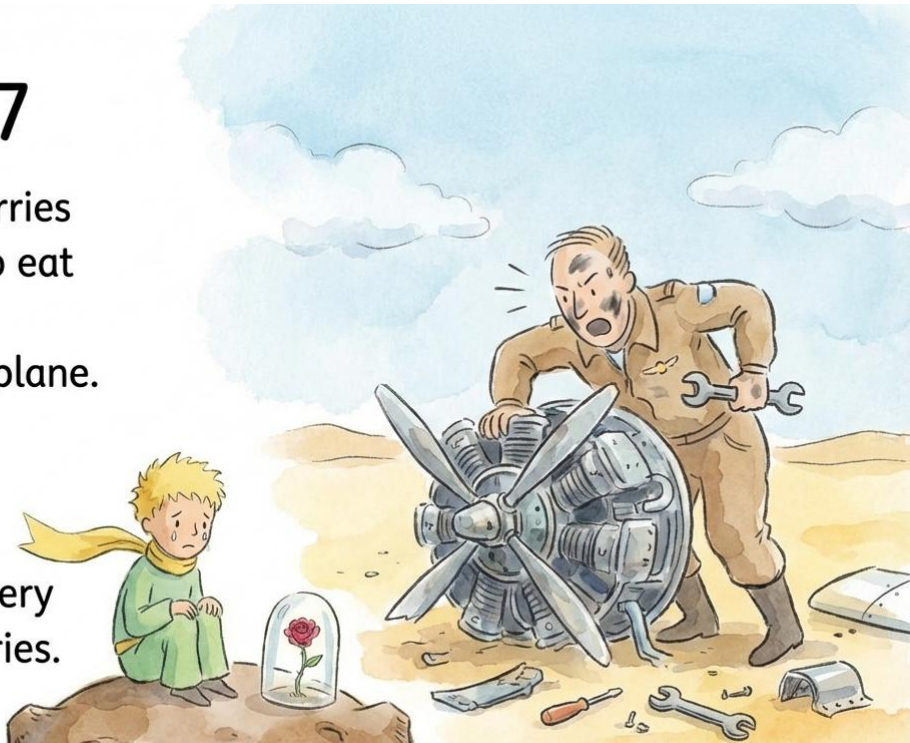

Chapter 6

The Little Prince is sad.
He watches the sunset.
On his small planet,
he can see the sun set
many times in one day.
He just moves his chair.
He saw 44 sunsets
one sad day.

Chapter 7

The Little Prince worries again. Will the sheep eat his special flower?
I am busy fixing my plane.
I am angry. I shout,
'The sheep will not eat the flower!'
The Little Prince is very upset with me. He cries.

Chapter 8

The Little Prince talks about his flower. One day, a new plant grew. It became a beautiful flower. The flower was very proud. She said she was special. She needed care. She wanted a glass cover at night. The Little Prince cared for her. But she was difficult. He loved her, but he was confused.

Chapter 9

The Little Prince decides to leave his planet. He cleans his volcanoes. He pulls the last baobab sprouts. He is sad to leave his flower. The flower says she does not need the glass cover anymore. She says, "Go." She does not want him to see her cry.

Chapter 10

The Little Prince visits other small planets.

He meets a king.

The king rules over nothing.

He likes to give orders.

The Little Prince leaves.

Chapter 11

He visits a vain man.
The vain man wants people to clap for him.
He wants people to say he is wonderful.

The Little Prince leaves.

Chapter 12

He visits a drunk man.
The drunk man drinks to forget.
He forgets he is ashamed of drinking.
The Little Prince is confused.
He leaves.

Chapter 13

He visits a businessman.
The businessman counts stars.
He says the stars are his.
He writes the number down.
He is always busy counting.
He does not enjoy the stars.
The Little Prince leaves.

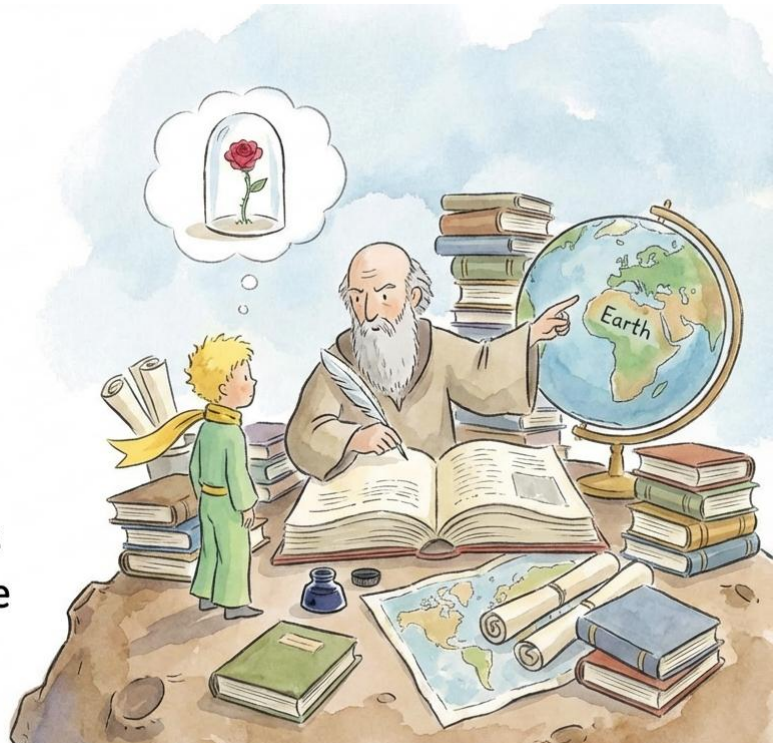

Chapter 14

He visits a lamplighter.
His planet is very small.
It turns fast. He must light the lamp at night and put it out in the morning.
He does it all the time.
He is very tired. But he does his job.
The Little Prince likes him.
He leaves sadly.

Chapter 15

He visits a geographer. The geographer writes books about places. But he never leaves his desk. He asks explorers about places. The Little Prince asks about his flower. The geographer says flow do not last. He tells the Little Prince to visit Earth.

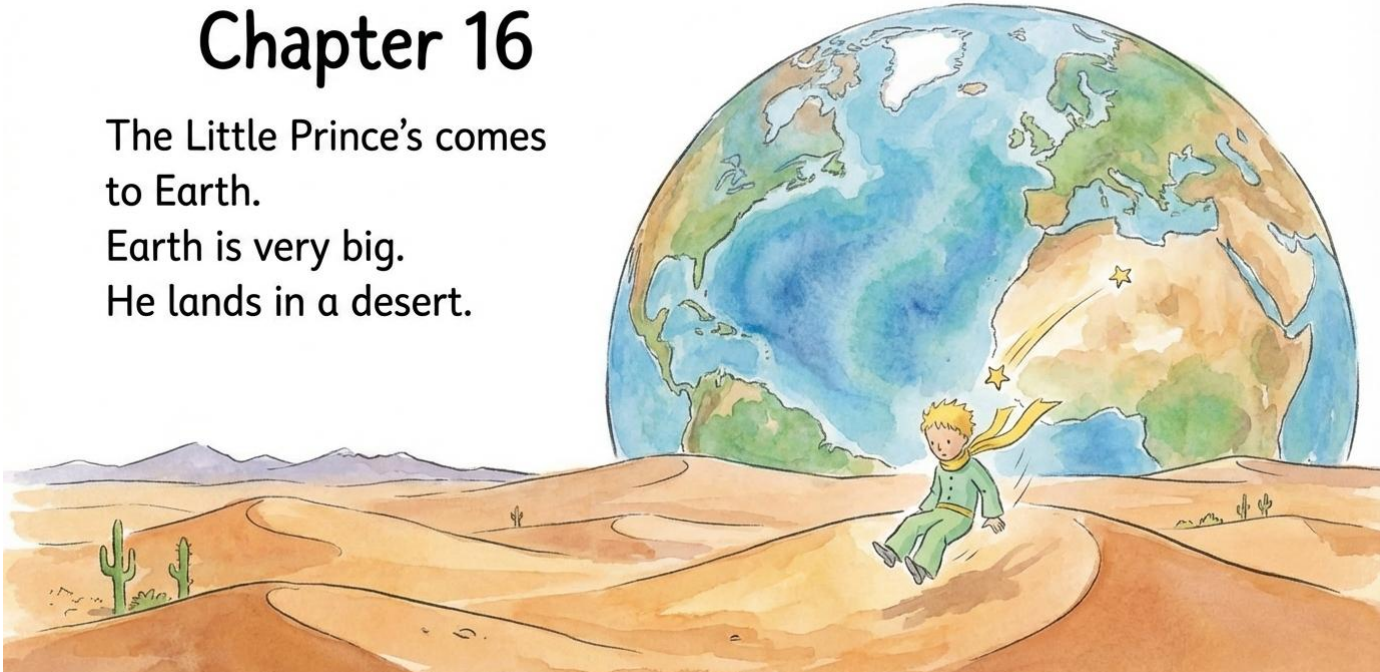

Chapter 16

The Little Prince's comes to Earth.

Earth is very big.

He lands in a desert.

Chapter 17

He sees a snake. The snake says he sends people back to the earth they came from. He means he can bite and kill.

Chapter 18

He sees a small flower.
He asks, "Where are the people?"
The flower says people have no roots.
The wind blows them away.

Chapter 19

He climbs a high mountain.
He shouts, "Hello!"
He hears his echo.
He thinks Earth is strange and lonely.

Chapter 20

He finds a garden full of roses.
There are many roses!
They look just like his flower.
He is sad. He thought his rose was the only one.
He cries.

Chapter 21

A fox appears. The fox wants to be friends. The fox says, 'To be friends, we need to know each other. We need special times together. This is called 'taming'. The Little Prince tames the fox. They become friends. When the Little Prince leaves, the fox is sad. The fox says, 'What is important is invisible. You see clearly only with your heart. Your rose is special because you cared for her.' The Little Prince understands. His rose is special because he loves her.

Chapter 22

The Little Prince meets a man.

The man sells pills.

The pills stop thirst.

You save time.

But the Little Prince thinks it is better to walk to water and enjoy it.

Chapter 23

He meets another man.
This man works on a train.
The train goes back and forth.
People are never happy
where they are.
The Little Prince thinks only children know what they want.

Chapter 24

I am still in the desert.
My water is gone.
The Little Prince and I walk.
We find a well! We drink.
The water is good.
The Little Prince says
the desert is beautiful because somewhere
it hides a well.

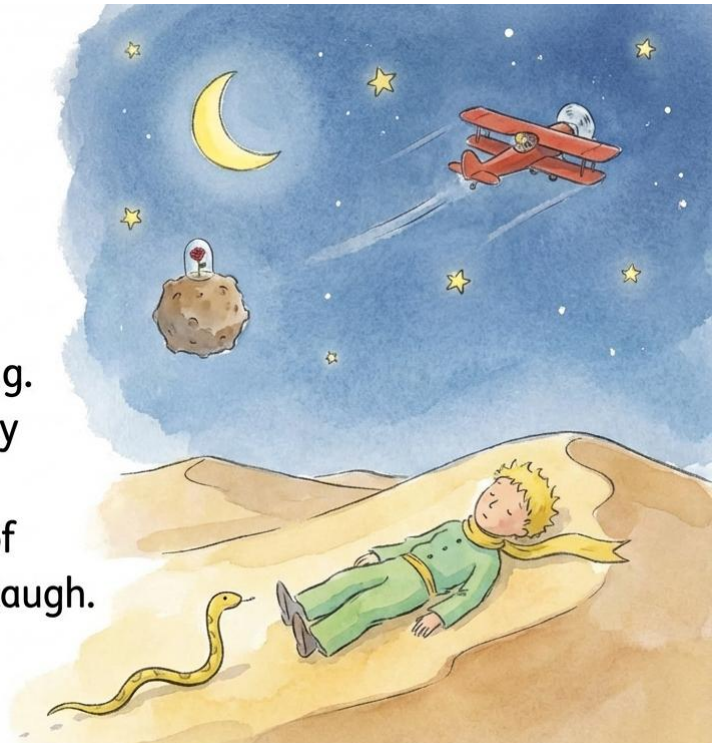

Chapter 25

It is the Little Prince's time to go home. He must go back to his planet. He needs to care for his rose. The snake will help him. He says his body is too heavy. He will leave it behind. He will look like he is sleeping, but he will go home. He tells me not to be sad when I look at the stars. I will hear his laugh.

Chapter 26

The next night, the Little Prince meets the snake. The snake bites him. The Little Prince falls down quietly. He looks like he is sleeping. He goes back to his star. I am very sad. I fix my plane and fly away. When I look at the stars, I think of the Little Prince. I remember his laugh. I hope he is happy with his rose.

Chapter 27

Sometimes I see the place where the Little Prince fell.
I remember him.
I ask you: If you go to Africa and see a little boy with golden hair, tell me.
He might be the Little Prince.

