

Poor boy loved to draw

Helped villagers,
food and tools

Greedy official captured,
forced to draw gold

Ma Liang

Helping Villagers

The Greedy
Official

The Magic Paintbrush

The Magic
Brush

The Escape

Conclusion

Old man gave magic brush,
drawings became real

Drew sea, boat,
and storm

Escaped, kept helping
the poor

Hunted mice to protect crops.

Angry farmers,
Called it a thief.

Angry farmers,
Called it a thief.

The Kind
Weasel

Misunderstood

Misunder-
stood

The Wolf- Hair Brush

The Final
Wish

The Lesson

Conclusion

Wished for fur to be made into brushes.

Teaches gratitude
and fairness.

Teaches gratitude and
fairness.

The Honest Crow

Spoke the truth but was disliked.
(Crow, Truth, Disliked)

Copied others and lived in a cage.
(Myna, Copied, Cage)

The Copycat Myna

The Flattering Magpie

Flattered people and was welcomed.
(Magpie, Flattered, Welcomed)

The Lesson

The story shows the value of honesty.
(Honesty, Value)

The Birds of Heaven

Animals wanted News

Animals
Wanted
News

EXAGGERATED
good news

Magpie
(Exaggerated)

spread BAD NEWS

Crow
(Bad News)

reported
TRUTHFULLY

Animals
Loved True
Stories

loved TRUE STORIES

Honest
Newspaper

TRUE STORIES

Old Bird
Chose Lark

chose lark because HONEST

Old Bird
Starts a
Newspaper

Pig Bear Horse Race

Joined a Race

Lazy
The Pig was Lazy
Sleeping

The Horse was Proud
Proud Pond Playing

The Lesson

Hard Work

Humility

Won
The Bear Won
Winner

The Bear Practiced Hard
Trying its Best

